Unit 2 – Daily life

Unit 3 – Where?

Unit 4 - Enjoy your meal

Unit 5 – What's the weather like

Unit 6 – Woe is me

Unit 7 – Happy Bairam!

At A2 Level:

At this level daily life skills such as noticing words for family members and relatives, recognizing sport related concepts, defining pastime activities and hobbies, talking at work life, communicating with friends and in the social environment, recognizing months according to seasons will be acquired.

A2 Level consists of the following 5 units:

Unit 1- I am going to miss...

Unit 2 – I have learned it by heart

Unit 3 – Once upon a time

Unit 4 - Wanted

Unit 5 – Shall we go on a picnic?

Learning-Teaching Process

At each unit, an activity module is presented primarily as to which learning objectives are to be taught. These modules, which aim to prepare and motivate you about the topic of the unit include an animated video that presents all the objectives, skills and vocabulary to be learned in each unit. After the video, the subject matter is presented in a fun and interactive manner, which also allows you to test your learning occasionally.

The program enables you study at your own pace and control and it does not require any high level of computer skill. You can do revisions and practice as much as you want. To guide you, some symbols are used in the exercises. The explanations of those symbols are given below.
